

Rumana Husain (Founder, General Secretary)

Rumana Husain is the author of two books related to Karachi: 'Karachiwala: a Subcontinent within a City' (2010) and 'Street Smart – Professionals on the Street' (2015). She has also written and/or illustrated over 60 children's books for local publishers, including the Oxford University Press, and a book each for publishers in Nepal, South Korea and (an award-winning book) in India. Trained as a graphic designer in Karachi, she completed a course in television production and direction from the Nova Scotia Institute of Technology in Halifax, Canada (1975-1976). She has taught art at KGS and IVSAA for brief periods, and worked as an innovative head of a well-known private school (1986 – 1996). She co-founded the Bookgroup (1988) and NuktaArt - a bi-annual art magazine (2005 – 2014), and was its Senior Editor. Husain was Head Activism & Outreach at the Children's Museum for Peace and Human Rights (2001 – 2008). She is a Director on the Board of the Children's Literature Festival (CLF), and a Founding Member and Member Executive Committee of I Am Karachi (IAK) – a movement aimed at social and cultural awareness. She acted as the project champion of the IAK Walls of Peace. Husain is also an active member of Citizens Against Weapons (CAW). She archives her writings on <http://karachiwali.blogspot.com/>