

Yousuf Moulvi (Member Executive Committee)

Yousuf Moulvi completed his Master of Law from S. M. Law College in 1997. He has been practicing law in the Lower Courts since 1993, in the High Court since 1995 and since 2008 in the Supreme Court. Yousuf was Vice President Karachi Bar Association (2006 - 07) and Vice President Sindh High Court Bar Association (2012 -13). He is a Certified Mediator, CEDR, from International Dispute Resolution Centre, London, UK, and Member KCDR, Karachi Centre for Dispute Resolution. He is also the legal advisor of Centre for Archaeological & Environmental Research and has a vast experience of drafting legal instruments and conducting civil and criminal cases. From 1995 to 2013 he worked on ILO conventions in partnership with ILO Pakistan, APTUC Karachi, BATU (Brotherhood of 14 Trade Union), Thailand, SAARC Sub-regional Secretariat Dhaka, NWC (National Workers Congress) Sri Lanka, WSM (World Solidarity Movement) Belgium, CNV-actieKom Over, Netherland and ICFTU Switzerland, with focus on social dialogues trade unionism, international brotherhood, culture and tourism.

Yousuf has worked for the promotion of handicrafts and folk art. Since 2009 to date, he is a member on the advisory committee of Dr. N.A. Baloch Institute of Heritage & Research and he is Visiting Assistant Professor (Law of Evidence and other Social Sciences) at Hamdard School of Law, Karachi.